

Ultrasonic Leak Detection

Compressed air Leaks are the silent killer of your bottom line!

Leaks are a significant source of wasted energy, up to 20-30% of a compressor's output. A typical plant can have a leak rate equal to 20% of total compressed air capacity. Our compressed air leak surveys inform users on appropriate corrective action.

leak surveys of your plant can be carried out with full report provided.

